The Canadian Cancer Society is a national, community-based organization of volunteers whose mission is the eradication of cancer and the enhancement of the quality of life of people living with cancer.

We, at Traditions Alive, feel that the fight for cancer cannot wait. We are proud to be able to support and host the shop for charity event. This is especially close to our hearts as it is with many of you. We hope you will come out and support this event and cause.

Traditions Alive

We Specialize in Traditional Handicrafts from India. Each item is handpicked and selected from the artisans whose craft is passed down from generation to generation.

All items are made from natural materials, completely handmade or using simple tools. The individual craftsmanship of these artisans is paramount – and this is what makes each item unique.

The history of Indian Handicrafts dates back 5000 years. The craft tradition in India has revolved around religious beliefs, local needs of the commoners, as well as special needs of the patrons and royalty. These traditions have withstood the ravages of time, numerous foreign invasions and continue to flourish till date, owing to the assimilative nature of Indian culture and broadmindedness of the craftsmen, who aspire to create items and designs that fit the modern life style while staying true to tradition.

Traditions Alive

We aim to bring these beautiful works of art to the forefront and showcase them through our selection. As we strive to find new and unique items, we continue to expand our collection and offer the finest of these creations.

With your help we are keeping the Traditions Alive and helping the fight for Cancer.
